Eddiebooks, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I ve experienced racing from the hooves up, rage from the inside out and redemption from heaven down, says author Eddie Donnally, an ordained minister, endorsed chaplain and the only former jockey to win an Eclipse Award for Outstanding Newspaper Writing. An electric jockey with a juice machine, he rode on racing s undercard, lived inside its underbelly and became a part of its underworld. From constant bulimia, broken bones and betrayal of Boston s infamous Winter Hill Gang, he depicts an unseen side of Thoroughbred racing. Yet the five tons of his sweat that disappeared down hot box drains was nothing compared to his struggles with sibling sexual trauma, same-sex promiscuity and an addiction to crack cocaine that in seven months took him from sports writing and TV show hosting to grooming horses on a track s backstretch. I still dream of having a racehorse between my knees and love the people in horse racing. he says. But it was time to tell my truth about it. Seconds after a race fixing gangster slugged me, a pro hit man told me that he planned to kill me and put my naked body on Boston s Suffolk Downs backstretch as a warning to other jockeys. Starting in 1962, he rode for 19-years in some 10,000 races, winning over 1,000. Arrested for Sports Bribery in 1979 for a fixed race he won in 1974, he was forced to fend off the FBI who pressured him to collaborate their star witness s testimony, as well as Boston s Winter Hill Gang members who would kill him if he did. Still, in 1980 he became a track publicity director and...
