Theres such a thing as praisin a thing for the good that it has done. Probably you remember how rich we was that night, When we was fairly settled, an had things snug and tight: We feel as proud as you please, Nancy, over our house thats new, But we felt as proud under this old roof, and a good deal prouder too. Never a handsomer house was seen beneath the sun: Kitchen and parlour and bedroom--we had em all in one; And the fat old wooden clock that we bought when we come West, Was tickin away in the corner there, and doin its level best. Trees was all around us, a-whisperin cheering words; Loud was the squirrels chatter, and sweet the songs of birds; And home grew sweeter and brighter--our courage began to mount--And things looked hearty and happy then, and work appeared to count. And here one night it happened, when things was goin bad, We fell in a deep old quarrel--the first we ever had; And when you give out and cried, then I, like a fool, give in, And then we agreed to rub all out, and start the thing agin. Here it was, you remember, we sat when the day was done, And you was a-makin clothing that wasnt for either one; And often a soft word of love I was soft enough to say, And the wolves was howlin in the woods not twenty rods away. Then our...
