I am looking forward to hearing the testimony from our witnesses today. I think its important that we learn about which interventions have been helpful in controlling these diseases and which ones have not, especially if were going to commit 10 million of taxpayers funds to help control infectious diseases in other countries. We must ensure that whatever funds we dedicate to this effort are used in the most effective manner and I intend to assume that responsibility as the subcommittee moves forward in its work. While there are strong humanitarian justifications for our level of involvement, we also have a compelling national interest as well. I believe that the growth and development of many of these nations is contingent on managing and ultimately defeating a seemingly unchecked spread of these deadly diseases. With that, I yield to my friend from Ohio for an opening statement. And again I would ask members of the subcommittee to keep in mind if they would waive their opening statements, they can have as much as 8 minutes questioning later on. I yield to the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. Brown. Mr. Brown. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I want to welcome Secretary Allen. Thank you for joining us again in our Committee. I want to extend a special welcome to Donna Barry, Director of the Russia program called Partners in Health which is a Boston-based NGO which operates TB and HIV treatment programs in the central plains of Haiti and Lima, Peru and in Tomsk, a city in central Siberia and in Russia....
